Vol. XXXIX

Aquila Staff

From September to May our school year was full of excitement. We, the Aquila staff made an effort to capture it all in words and pictures to present to you in this the 1982 edition of the Aquila. We have enjoyed our work and it is our hope that this annual will hold many happy memories for you now and in the future.

Students finally realize the school year has begun when they meet the teachers face to face at registration. Here Connie Stieler, Stacie Haynes, Linda Morales and Karen Kroll sign up for the big year ahead.

From Registration to

The year ends when Seniors put on those Maroon caps and gowns. Elizabeth Stokes with diploma, Estella Flores and Laurie Linder getting ready.

Graduation

This Is How It Was

Seniors Thought They Were #1 There Was Some Waiting, for Something to Happen a Lot of Activity, Some Work, and a Little Clowning Around Freddie Gutierrez, Mark Dickerson, Lorena Morales, Armando Trevino, Roy Ortiz protect the banner.

David McIlvain and Travis Armke work on the Ag Shop.

Kevin Stueler, Zane Swope, Todd Kneese, Larry Scott, and Ernie Rios wait for the bell to ring.

Everybody including the Seventh Grade decorated their cars for Homecoming.

Privileged transportation for Armando Trevino, Susan McIlvain, Jodi Linsey, Buddy Woodall.

We Belong

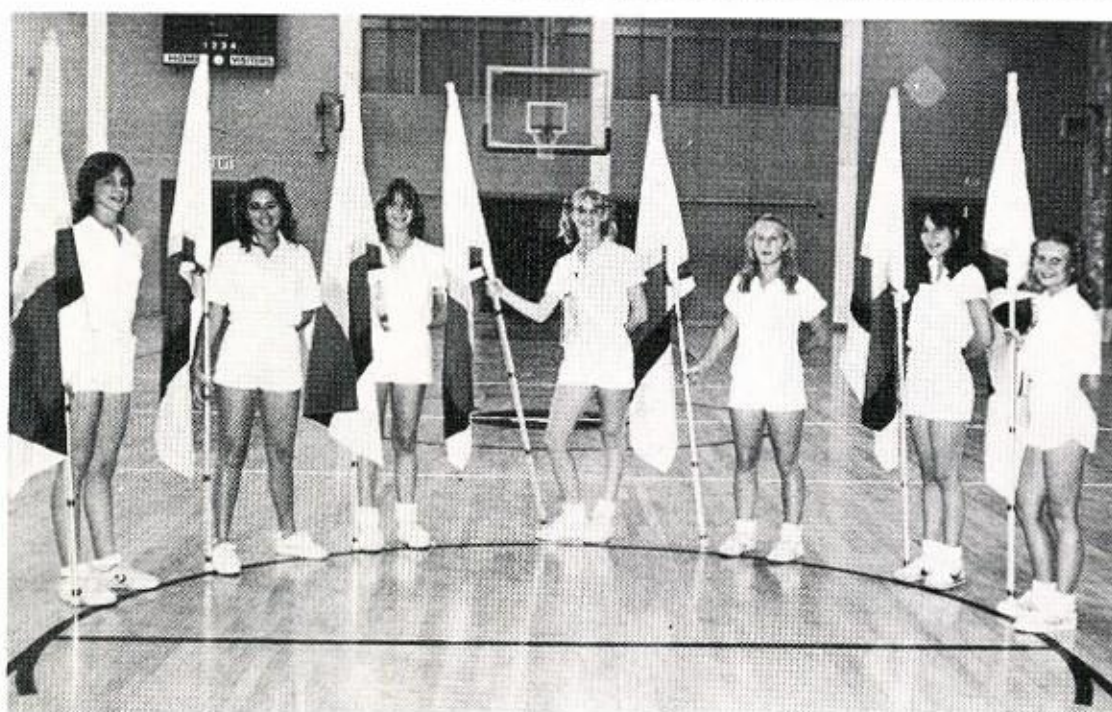

The year was busy for everyone. Since L.B.J. is a small school, the same students find themselves helping and taking part in many activities. No one is left out.

The 197 students enrolled in the high school building numbered many more when counted on the basis of membership in the extras of school.

Somehow they found time to run for and hold offices of responsibility and to belong to organizations that took hours of extra time and energy.

The boys were to leave early so we had an outside pep rally at 1:00.

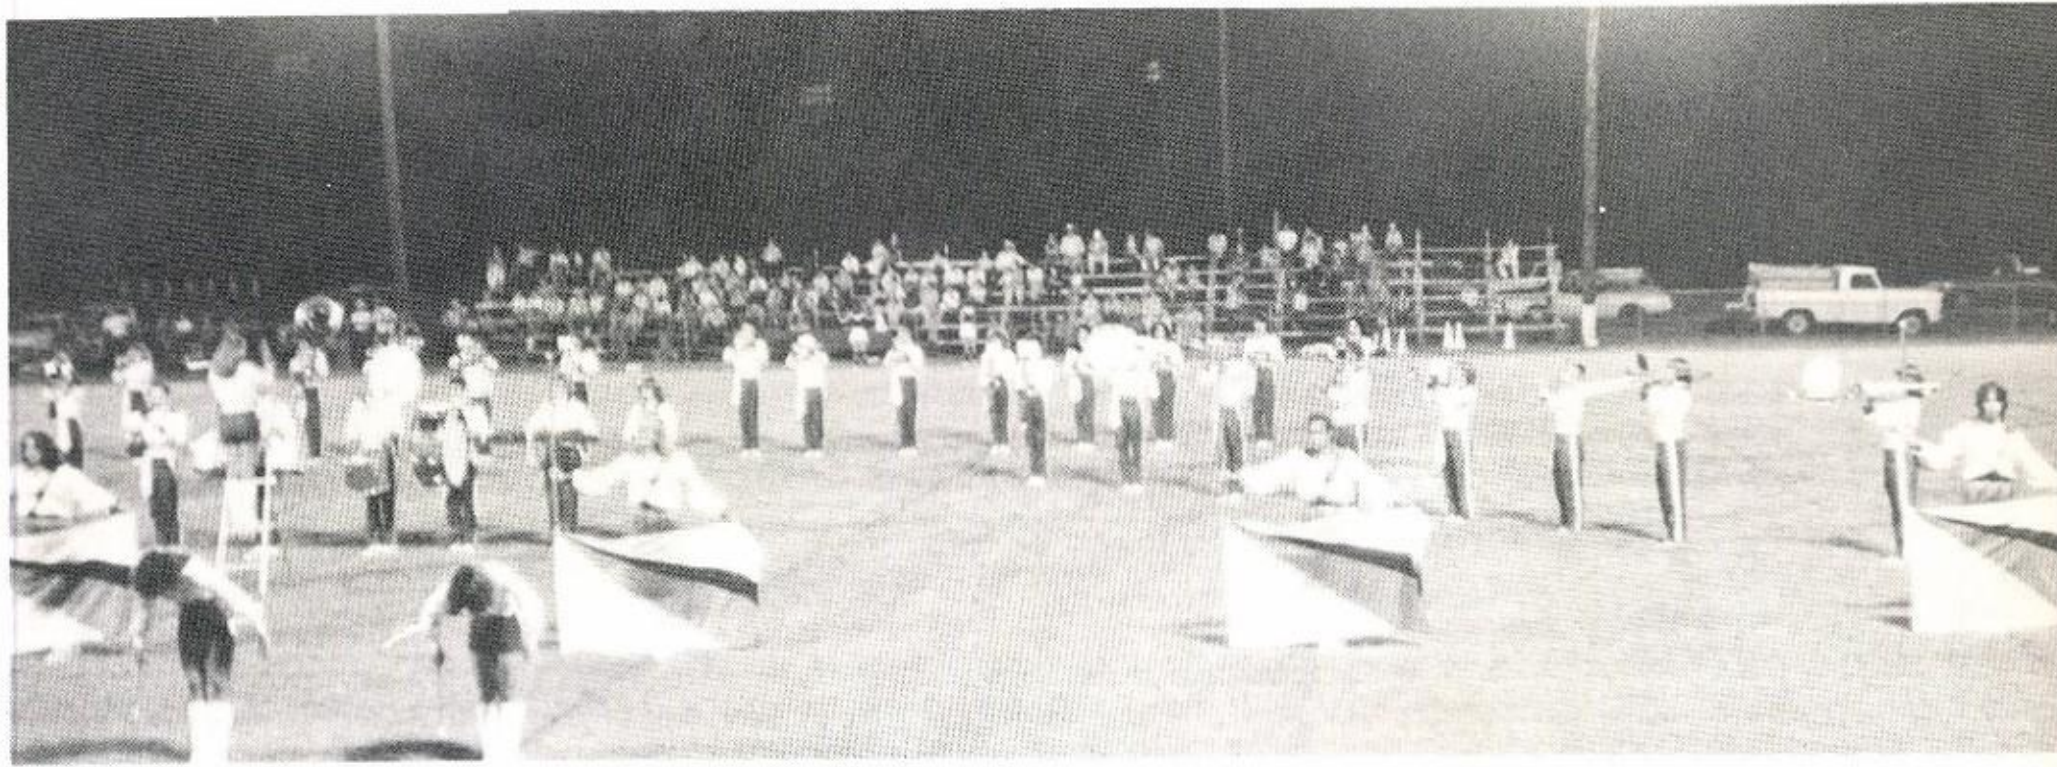

The girls with the flags spent many hours practicing their routines.

Candidates for Student Council offices had to make a speech. Here Susan McIlvain, Kris Riddell, Julie Mengers, Cris-Ann Craig wait their turn.

Beta Club members listen to plans for the year.

55 students belong to the award winning 1981-82 Fighting Eagle Band.

Stock Show is fun, right? John Harper, Scott Dyer, Parrish Taylor, Kathy Moss

Six Football players become a blur as they change shirts at half-time so they can march with the band. David Marshall helps. Pat Daniels, Billy Mengers, Jimmie Rowe, Ronnie Sultemeier, Wynn Stevenson, Brent Harris.

The band studied and marched—the Drama Club put on three productions—the Student Council finished several projects—Football, Basketball, Track, Cheerleading, Twirlers, FHA, FFA, Beta.

We belonged to them all. We did our best and we received the reward—we were part of the spirit of L.B.J.H.S.

I believe our students here at Johnson City are developing a pride in themselves, as well as pride in our school. This is something that will be of great value to them throughout life.

I have seen this change take place during the three years I have been in Johnson City. Additionally our students are friendly by nature and in all my years in the school business, I've never been treated with more kindness. May all things you have learned in '81-82 be treasured.
